The remarkable geological landforms at Lulworth Cove.

The Med? No! ... Durdle Door Holiday Park is part of the privately owned Lulworth Estate which occupies 12,000 acres of some of the most delightful Dorset coast and countryside.
On your doorstep...

You don’t have to venture far to see why Dorset is so special. On your doorstep there’s history, action sports, safe beaches, scenic walks, picture postcard villages and many charming places to eat and drink.

Discover the perfect natural horseshoe shaped harbour of Lulworth Cove, Stair Hole and the magnificent rock arch of Durdle Door. The pretty village of West Lulworth is probably best known as the access point to Lulworth Cove and its beaches. Here you will find the Heritage Centre where you can pick up information and ideas on ways to explore the surrounding countryside and coast. Book a water sport activity, watch the local fishermen or take a spin around the Cove.

At the heart of Lulworth Estate is Lulworth Castle, a former hunting lodge built in 1608 to entertain aristocracy and royalty. Today it is open to visitors - climb the Tower, visit the C18th Roman Catholic Chapel and the C15th Church of St Andrew. With woodland walks, a childrens playground and spacious grounds to walk the dog or enjoy a picnic, it’s a great day out.

A country estate of rolling Dorset countryside and miles of World Heritage Jurassic Coast including Durdle Door and Lulworth Cove.

Take to the water to view the coast in all its Jurassic glory.

At the Castle gates the Weld Arms welcomes visitors with country cooking using fresh local ingredients, fine wine and ales.
Drop into Past & Presents tea room and gift shop in the Old School, East Lulworth.

Lulworth Range walks and the lost village of Tyneham

Probably the best way to enjoy our great outdoors is on foot. Beautiful walks abound. The Coast Path between Lulworth Cove and Kimmeridge Bay is simply stunning or take a shorter stroll to the spectacular Worbarrow Bay from Dorset’s famous lost village of Tyneham. Tyneham was evacuated in 1943 during the second world war and the village has been deserted ever since, but many of the buildings survive and the Church and School now houses evocative exhibitions about the village and villagers.

Before setting out, check our park guide or call 01929 400200 for details and opening times for Range walks and Tyneham Village.

Coast and Countryside

The countryside around Lulworth and Durdle Door is not just scenic it is part of the Dorset Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and a Site of Special Scientific Interest. Ancient monuments such as Bronze Age burial mounds and an Iron Age hill fort are evident in the landscape and smugglers, coastguards, farmers and fishermen have all made their mark on the area. Sit back and take in the views, swim in the safe waters, cycle, walk or enjoy a picnic packed with local goodies.

It’s a glorious place to discover a huge variety of wildlife including butterflies, birds, flowers and marine life. Keep an eye out for seals, basking sharks and if you’re lucky, a bottlenosed dolphin.

Worbarrow Bay
Many see Durdle Door’s 150 million year old iconic rock arch as a dinosaur with its head lowered to lap up the sea.

250 million years in the making, Dorset’s Jurassic Coast is England’s only natural World Heritage Site.

The dramatic cliffs, secluded coves and impressive coastal rocks tell a story that goes back 250 million years.

The Earth’s history and the evolution of species is etched into our landscape with such significance that UNESCO designated this coastline as an area of ‘outstanding universal value’ alongside the Great Barrier Reef and the Grand Canyon.

The Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site stretches for 95 miles from Exmouth in the west to the mouth of Poole Harbour at Studland Bay, Dorset in the east.

Durdle Door Holiday Park is located at a particularly accessible part of the Jurassic Coast. With direct access, you are only a few minutes walk from the iconic rock arch of Durdle Door. The extraordinary Fossil Forest, the Lulworth Crumple and Lulworth Cove are also nearby and linked using the South West Coast Path.

To appreciate the scale, beauty and importance of this prehistoric lost world, visit the Heritage Centre at Lulworth Cove, it’s an ideal starting point with exhibitions, guide books, maps and advice from the Lulworth Rangers. The Fossil Shop opposite is great for Jurassic gifts.
Out and about

In such an interesting holiday destination, Durdle Door is ideally located - you will not be short of things to do. There are many top tourist attractions, award winning beaches and picture postcard villages. Nearby towns such as Bournemouth, Poole, Dorchester, Wareham, Swanage and the Olympic sailing famous Weymouth offer sparkling entertainment, retail therapy, museums, festivals and fairs. There is an abundance of historic houses, ornamental gardens, farm parks, animals to meet and boat trips to choose from. For more information on attractions in Dorset, check out www.visit-dorset.com.

Looking after the Jurassic Coast

This coast is one of our greatest national treasures. By enjoying it, you can also help us look after it. A small £1 donation when you book will help us to support the Jurassic Coast Trust. By raising funds for education and conservation, the Trust aims to ensure this World Heritage Site is passed on to future generations as a place of discovery and enjoyment. www.jurassiccoast.org
Once you have arrived and settled in, call in to the Park Reception where you will find all the information you need to make the most of your stay. There’s leaflets, maps and guides to help you plan a great day out, ideas for some great local walks and a whole range of activities both land and sea based. And if you can’t find what you are looking for, just ask ... we are here to help you have a great holiday.

Energetic children love the Woodland and Ferndown play areas, a safe and secure environment with swings, slides and twisties for toddlers, fitness trails, cable rides, swings, football and basketball for older children.

From the park take a walk down to the beach to dip your toes and see the mighty rock arch up close or take a climb over the hill to the stunning Lulworth Cove.

When it’s time to stock up, our on-site store offers all your day-to-day store cupboard needs. Freshly baked bread, pastries and pasties, fruit and veggies, meat and sausages for a BBQ supper, bacon and eggs for that hearty cooked breakfast, plus, beach toys, gifts and souvenirs.

If our great outdoors has worked up your appetite and you don’t feel like cooking, treat yourself to something tasty from the Blue Crab Café Bar and Grill, perfectly justified after all that fresh sea air.
The Blue Crab

The Blue Crab is no ordinary holiday park café. Our recently refurbished, nautical themed eatery has made a name for itself among walkers and visitors alike as something of a destination diner.

Open for breakfast, lunch, dinner and as a bar/cafe throughout the day, there’s always a warm welcome and tasty treats on offer. On the menu you will find fresh daily specials. The bar itself features a choice of beers, lagers and wine with a large selection of local real ales.

With music and entertainment in high season, a pool table and pleasant outside terraces, The Blue Crab is a great place to chill out after a hard day exploring.

Favourites for foodies

With an abundance of fresh local produce from the sea and the surrounding countryside, this is a great base for foodies. Organic meat, fruit and veg, speciality cheeses, local ales, cider and wine are all on the menu around and about. Head to the Weld Arms at East Lulworth and you can enjoy everything from a delicious ‘Durdle-Door-Step’ sandwich to west country crab with toasted peanuts and coriander, Lulworth scallops with a sweet pepper jam, mussels steamed in local cider, Dorset Blue Vinney with walnut dressing, BBQ Pulled Pork, Onglet steak, a selection of divine desserts and of course, Purbeck Ice Cream.

With crystal clear waters, Durdle Door Holiday Park has two rural beaches nearby at Man O’ War Bay and Durdle Door. Both are popular for safe swimming, snorkelling, diving and lots of beach fun.
For a back-to-nature experience our Camping Pods are great fun and ideal for walkers, cyclists and all those who like to travel light. All Pods sleep four, are dog friendly and come with a lockable door, boot storage, picnic table, beds, electric sockets, lights and heater. Wind and rain resistant, they are cosy and ready to occupy. Book your Pod with a double and two single beds for a family, or bunk beds and two camp beds. Mattresses are provided but you will need to bring your own bedding.
