A loch-side escape - so near, yet so far away

Just one hour from Glasgow

Rosneath, Near Helensburgh, Argyll

Holiday Home Ownership, Short Breaks & Holidays

A loch-side holiday park in Scotland's great outdoors...

Rosneath Castle Park is set among the copper-coloured hills of Argyll, on the banks of Gareloch and close to Loch Lomond and the Firth of Clyde. The surrounding scenery is some of Scotland's most spectacular – local landmarks have featured as star turns in Downton Abbey, Harry Potter and James Bond. We are just one hour's drive from Glasgow, yet you'll feel a million miles away.

Trails from Rosneath lead through deer filled woods and climb braes that overlook lochs and coastal waters. The area crackles with history, from Wallace's Loup at the park entrance, where the Scottish Braveheart leapt from a cliff to escape the English army, to the cave and prison of 18th century hero Rob Roy a short drive away.
