Newsletter and updates.

Holiday homes: All our holiday homes are now wide body (12ft) making a real difference to the perception of space and enabling truly home from home layouts. The latest generation is equipped with double glazing and central heating for those Spring and Autumn holidays.

Touring and Camping: We now have six fully serviced touring pitches enabling you to connect directly to water and grey water discharge, we also have added two hard standing motorhome pitches with water. For those who would rather not tow or bring all their camping gear we have pitched a substantial Safari tent with real beds and running water.

Facilities: The play area has received a new climbing frame which has proved very popular, so has the undercover table tennis.

The covered area outside the toilet block now houses a fireplace, and campers kitchen facilities, for those get together evenings with friends and family. Wifi now covers most parts of the site and is free.

Holiday activities: Our information chalet has been augmented to help you discover the many secret coves, good walks and gardens around our coasts. Trevarno Gardens are currently closed and Goonhilly centre will reopen soon. Many smaller attractions have surfaced recently and make a good family day out . Have you tried Cornish Camels?

The practical side: We now have a Tesco, a Sainsbury, a Lidl as well as a Co-op in town. Cornwall has made giant strides in developing its local food resources and many delicatessen now provide local produce not counting the recent apparition of many local breweries.

Helston has a first of the month Saturday farmer's market which is proving very popular.

To make your reservation: Either book on line (www.poldown.co.uk) or telephone to confirm the dates you require are available. We will then hold your booking for 7 days to allow you to forward the deposit. A deposit of £75/week (£175/week for July and August) for each unit reserved must be paid by cheque made out to the order of Poldown Caravan Park at the time of booking. This is non-returnable and the balance is payable on or before the day of arrival. A receipt will be sent for each deposit, and no booking exists until we have confirmed it. If the accommodation required is not available by the time the Reservation Form and deposit are received, the deposit will be returned in full. Notice of Cancellation should be sent by Registered Post so that it is received not later than 21 days prior to commencement of period of hire. If there is no Notice of Cancellation given or it arrives later than 21 days prior commencement, irrespective of any cause or reason, payment in full will be enforced, but in such cases the Proprietors will try to re-let the accommodation, and, if successful, a charge will only be made for the time it is unoccupied. You are requested not to arrive before 2 p.m. and to vacate your caravan by 10 am. on the day of Departure. The number of persons occupying a caravan must not exceed the number of berths. The Proprietors reserve the right to re-let any reserved accommodation not claimed by 10.00 am on the day immediately following the first day of reservation, unless prior written notice of late arrival has been received. Duvets, blankets, pillows, crockery, cutlery and cooking utensils are provided but it is necessary for you to bring bed linen including pillowcases, towels and tea towels.

The Hirer should undertake to keep the caravan, furniture, fixtures and utensils etc. in a clean and tidy condition and leave them in that way for the next Hirer. We reserve the right to inspect the caravan prior to departure and to make a cleaning charge if required. Any articles lost or broken must be replaced or paid for. The Proprietors will not accept responsibility for loss, theft or damage to persons' property howsoever caused. All animals must be kept on a lead at all times exercised away from the site and should not be allowed on the furniture and not left on the site or in the caravans unattended. Please remember to bring your pet's bedding and protective covers.
